

ROMANS 8:31-37

Romans 8:31-37

³¹ So Jesus said to the Jews who had believed him, "If you abide in my word, you are truly my disciples, ³² and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free." ³³ They answered him, "We are offspring of Abraham and have never been enslaved to anyone. How is it that you say, 'You will become free'?"

³⁴ Jesus answered them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, everyone who practices sin is a slave to sin. ³⁵ The slave does not remain in the house forever; the son remains forever. ³⁶ So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed. ³⁷ No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us.

"What then shall we say to these things?"

- What are "these things" and what are they saying to you?

Suffering seeks to rob us of the confidence we have in Jesus.

- In reality, suffering reminds us of God's power and drives us deeper into our relationship with Him.
